PREFACE

With the completion of this volume of the Sacramental Registers of St. Francis Xavier's Roman Catholic Church, Gettysburg, Pennsylvania, we have added another and very vital segment to our chronicle of the catholic population of the Conewago Valley.

In recording these acts, the authors had two purposes in mind. First, it was our desire to provide a fast, accurate and readily available reference to assist the Pastor in matters relating to these acts and, secondly, to aid the genealogist seeking to find his roots. We believe that this work satisfies both our objectives. We trust that, in time, patriotic organizations which demand proof of lineage will accept this document as prima facie satisfaction of their requirements.

We would remind all who use this work to carefully consider all possible variations of a name. We have copied the records exactly as we read the original. However, for various reasons what we read may not be what was actually in the original. Even in those cases where we knew a name was written in error, we made no effort to correct it in our work. The user must be the final authority in selecting which of several name variations he desires to use. Some errors in typing may have escaped us. For these errors we offer our apologies and trust that they will be brought to our attention.

Mrs. Donna Yake has spent many hours in proof reading this manuscript and her efforts have been invaluable in eliminating many mechanical errors. For her time, patience and service we are most grateful.

In this volume will be found the records of more than 2500 burials, 1800 baptisms and nearly 2000 marriages. We believe that this book will be of substantial assistance to those seeking their roots in the records of this church. The busy Parish Priest should find some relief in time; original records should be spared much use; the archivist should have another valuable record of catholic activities in his library and the searching genealogist should be able to search the records faster, easier and with a much greater degree of thoroughness.

We trust that all who have occasion to use this record will find the work of value and assistance.

SOME CHURCH HISTORY

The early history of the catholics who lived in the Gettysburg area has been lost in antiquity, obscured by the frailty of memories and the lack of written memories. The few records which do exist would indicate that the earliest efforts to form a parish at Gettysburg began about 1827, when gifts of money and land were donated for the purpose of erecting a church. Early Adams County Catholics were primarily of German origin, extremely poor and very few in numbers, but they were possessed of a deep and devout faith. It was this devotion which compelled them, in those days before they had a church of their own, to attend services on Sunday and Holy days at Conewago, Emmitsburg or Taneytown, where Catholic Churches were already established. In good weather, or bad, by foot, horseback, carriage or wagon, they willingly spent the 6 to 8 hours required to travel to and from these services, which might be 10 to 15 miles from their home. When they died, they were buried in the burial yards of these same churches, or in family plots on some local homestead.

The Jesuits of Conewago ranged far and wide over Maryland, Pennsylvania and West Virginia. They often visited Gettysburg, where, during the course of their visit, they would celebrate mass in the private residence of some local catholic family. These houses became known as Mass Houses. It is very probable that one of these local Mass Houses was the residence of Jacob Norbeck, located at what is now 127 South Washington Street. It is known that these itinerant priests lodged at his house until a resident pastor and rectory made such practice unnecessary.

The Jesuits, with the aid of local catholics, began the organization of a parish at Gettysburg about 1827. At that time, Peter Eline and Peter Martin each gave $150.00 for the erection of a church, and Jacob Norbeck, who had no money to offer, donated a plot of ground of approximately the same value as his contribution. This plot of ground was located on the west side of the southern end of West Street, and included what is now 333 - 349 South Washington Street.

The church, a brick building 40 feet long by 30 feet wide, was dedicated on 2 October 1831. Among the original members of this small congregation were Jacob Nobeck, Peter Eline, Peter Martin, Michael Gallagher, Dr. C. N. Berluchy, George Richter, Nicholas Codori, George Adams, Mrs. Elizabeth Allen, McLaughlins, McAleers, Lazarus Shorb, Nicholas Eckenrode, Daniel Sherky, Mrs. Thompson and a few others. The first recorded burial in the new churchyard was that of Mrs. Elizabeth Allen, who died 10 November 1831.

From such a small and humble beginning, The Catholic Church at Gettysburg, known as St. Francis Xavier's, grew and prospered, and by 1851 the small building was no longer adequate for the needs of the growing parish. In 1852, the old building was razed and the old bricks used in a new and larger building on West High Street. While the south wall of the old church was being readied for removal on Friday, 26 March 1852, it fell and killed Henry Hollinger and Charles Buckmaster (colored). The new building, erected on a plot of land purchased for $750.00 from Ferdinand E. Vandersloot, was dedicated on 31 July 1853, and, with the exception of a short period when it served as a hospital during the Civil War, has served the needs of the congregation to this day. During the period when the church was being used as a hospital, a period lasting several weeks starting at noon on 1 July 1863, mass was held at the home of Nicholas Codori. This house thus became a Gettysburg Mass House.

In 1885, ground was purchased on West High Street for use as a catholic Burial ground. The first interment was that of Jacob Klunk, ex-sheriff of Adams County, who died 8 September 1885. By October of 1885, the remains of those interred in the old churchyard were being removed to the new catholic burial site. Four Hundred and fifty bodies were removed to new graves in a new cemetery. Many of these remains were not identified, and, in 1902, Reilly noted in his "Collections" the rows of wooden crosses marking the graves of these unknown catholics from the original Catholic Churchyard at Gettysburg.

In 1918, the first major outbreak of influenza in the Adams County area occurred at Gettysburg, where the "Tankers" at the Camp Colt Training Camp were so badly infected that St. Francis Xavier's Catholic School was converted to a hospital and was rapidly filled. It was significant that, at the same time, the civilian population of the near-by town of Gettysburg remained virtually unaffected.

SOME ABSTRACTS FROM LOCAL PAPERS

On Thursday, 19 May 1831, the steeple of the Roman Catholic church under construction in this place, was struck by lightning. Jonathan Gilbert, a plasterer working in the steeple was prostrated and remained senseless for some time before recovering.

On Friday, 26 March 1852, Harry Hollinger and Charles Buckmaster (colored) were killed when the south wall of the Roman Catholic Church, in this place, fell on them.

From the Compiler, Tuesday, March 13, 1885.

G. A. Reichle last week sold to Simon Codori 2 lots of ground on the west side of West Street, about 8 acres, for $1,000.00. About 5 acres of the land is intended for the use of the Roman Catholic Church, of this place, and will be laid out and used as a burial ground. ****

From the Compiler, Tuesday, July 25, 1885.

The lot of ground recently purchased by the Roman Catholic Congregation for a burying ground has been enclosed with a neat fence and laid out in walks and avenues. The ground will be consecrated by Bishop Shanahan. (Dedicated Sunday, September 13, 1885.) ****

From the Compiler, Tuesday, October 13, 1885.

The remains of the dead from the old Roman Catholic burial ground on the west side of South Washington Street were being moved to the new ground on West High Street. The body of a soldier was found buried about 18 inches under the sod. His chest bone was crushed by a piece of shell. There was nothing to indicate whether the body was that of a Union or a Confederate soldier. (Body removed to the National Cemetery.) ****

From the Compiler, 1905.

St. Francis Church used as a hospital during Civil War. Floors, walls, seats, ornamentations and other parts of the church were damaged. On 3 January 1864, Fr. Joseph A. Boll found church much in need of repair as a result of damage incurred from use as a hospital during and after the Battle of Gettysburg. Total cost of repairs and cleaning amounted to $890.00. ****

AUTHOR'S NOTES

The Burial Records of St. Francis Xavier's Church presents a very unusual and perplexing problem which a study of the Sacramental Registers does not resolve.

Mrs. Elizabeth Allen died in November 1831 and is the earliest recorded burial of the newly formed Parish. Her burial is recorded in the registry as number 210. All subsequent burials are numbered consecutively from 210. Why was her number 210? Why was she not number 1? While nothing has been found to explain this numbering enigma, it is the belief of the author that some records of catholic deaths in this area must have been maintained prior to 1831 and the organization of this Parish. If this surmise is true, then a list of 209 catholic burials must have been made. Needless to say a record of this kind, if it could be located, would be of the utmost value to historians and genealogists.

In studying these death records, one is impressed with the magnitude of the terrible sorrows borne by these pioneer catholic families as the ravages of epidemic disease caused multiple trips to the burial ground, often within very short intervals of time.
