Our ingress into the world
was naked and bare;
Our progress through the world
is trouble and care;
Our egress from the world
will be nobody knows where
But if we do well here
We shall do well there;
And I could tell you no more,
Should I preach a whole year!

DEDICATION

This volume of the Sacramental Registers of St. Mary's Roman Catholic Church, Fairfield, Pennsylvania, 1895 - 1989, is respectfully dedicated to the memory of who saw the need and worked for the establishment of a Catholic Church at "Millerstown" and to all those priests who followed him in service to the catholic families at Fairfield.

PREFACE

In this, our eighth book of Church Records we continue the chronicle of the Catholic population of the Conewago Valley through the record of the Pastoral Acts of the priests of the Roman Catholic Churches. The volume presented here-with was intended to be the final chapter of this on-going series, but much to our dismay, we discovered that records which we believed would commence in 1852 did not begin until 1895. Thus over 40 years of Catholic Records for the Fairfield Church must be found elsewhere.

It is our fervent hope that these records will be accepted by the various Patriotic Societies for which lineal descent must be established thru legitimate lines. Since proof for these lines must now be more positive than ever before, acceptance of these records would be a boon to all those who seek membership in these organizations and find their ancestors within the pages of this volume.

In a work of this nature, errors must, and do, occur. These errors are, generally, of two types - translation and mechanical. In translating and transcribing records, we strive to present the record exactly as it appears in the original. Even when we know the original is in error, we do not correct it. We believe that this is the only proper way to present the information and we leave it to the user to compare the various entries and, in his own mind, determine what is probably right - or wrong. Where we are prone to error in translating is in deciding if a letter is an "i" or an "e", an "o" or an "a". Thus when we say the letter was an "o" and write the name as PLONK, it may very well have been an "a" and the name PLANK. The user must search for a name under every conceivable variation of spelling when using these records.

Mechanical errors are made while typing the material. Typing the name FRANCIS for the feminine FRANCES is a good example. While we have made strenuous efforts to find and correct errors of this nature, some must surely persist. For these we offer our apology and beg your indulgence.

We have attempted to provide most of the available information in our presentation. Often the limited spaces available on the computer program were insufficient to handle the wealth of information available. When this happened, we were forced to resort to abbreviations and changes of format. These cases are readily apparent and the user, after a little study, should have no difficulty in following the entry.

To Father Robert G. Kobularik, Pastor of St. Mary's Church, we offer our sincere thanks and gratitude for his cooperation in making this work possible.

Mrs. Donna Yake spent many hours in proofreading the manuscript and her efforts have been invaluable in eliminating many mechanical errors. To her, we are most grateful.

In this volume are the records of 664 burials, 189 baptisms with 346 secondary baptismal entries, 314 primary marriages and 1180 secondary marriages. We believe that this book will be of substantial assistance to those seeking their roots in the records of this church. The busy Parish Priest should find some relief in time; original records should be spared much use; the archivist should have another valuable record of Catholic activities in his library and the genealogist should locate desired information in less time and with less effort.

Should these goals be a reality, we shall have been amply rewarded and our dream of recording the Catholics of the Conewago Valley will have become less a dream and more of a reality.

In order to conserve space in these printed records and at the same time provide the user with the complete information from the Sacramental Registers of St. Mary's Church, it is necessary to indicate the Celebrant of the Pastoral Act in a coded form.

The following pages list the Pastors performing Pastoral Acts at St. Mary's Church as listed in the Sacramental Registers and the initials used in this work to identify them.

THE CATHOLIC CHURCH AT FAIRFIELD - Some Bits of History . . .

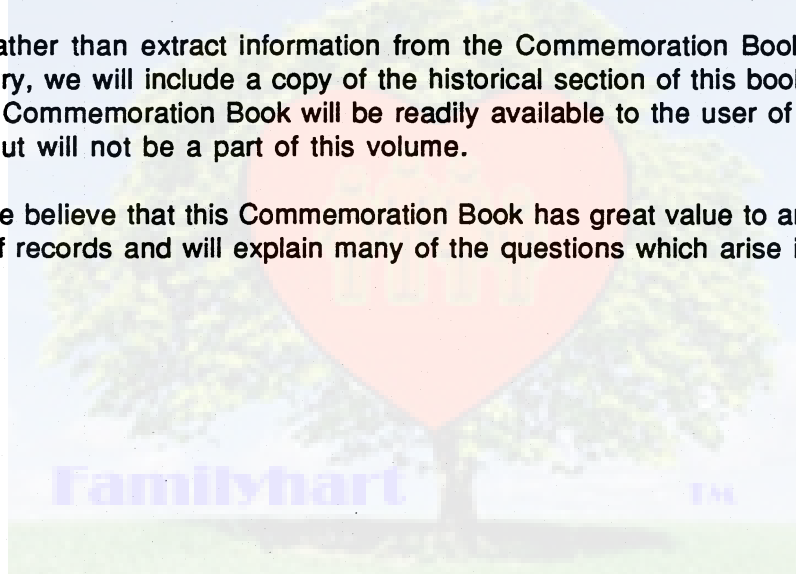

It has been our practice in each of our other books to include a page of interesting facts and history which we discovered during the preparation of our book.

In working on the Fairfield Records, we did indeed come upon facts with which we were not familiar and were dismayed to find that other churches were also involved with the welfare of the Fairfield Catholics to an extent that compromises the value of this volume.

The history of the Catholic Church at Fairfield is at times obscured and at times contradictory and the truth is not always to be found. The sole source of information which we have found and used was a small booklet entitled "Commemoration Book of Saint Mary's Church, Fairfield, Pennsylvania, April 24, 1966". This booklet has no single author but represents the collected effort of a group of congregation members. Even that staunch and stalwart collector and recorder of local Catholic history, John Timon Reily, has little to say about St. Mary's Church.

Rather than extract information from the Commemoration Book and write our own history, we will include a copy of the historical section of this book as appendix A. Thus the Commemoration Book will be readily available to the user of this volume of records but will not be a part of this volume.

We believe that this Commemoration Book has great value to any user of this volume of records and will explain many of the questions which arise in a study of this Parish.

History of St. Mary's Church

The beginning of the history of the Catholic Church in Fairfield is interwoven with the history of Mt. St. Mary's College and St. Joseph's Church, Emmitsburg. Fairfield was surveyed as the Borough of Millerstown in 1801; and in 1850, the name of the borough was changed from Millerstown to Fairfield. The earliest written record of Catholics in Fairfield was in a manuscript of Father Simon Brute in 1823, when he was pastor of St. Joseph's Church, Emmitsburg. Priests from Mt. St. Mary's College took charge of St. Joseph's. In his writings he speaks of Gettysburg and "Millerstown, six miles to the west." Farther on in the manuscript he speaks about having a "priest placed in charge of Millerstown and Gettysburg." Whether or not a priest ever travelled to Millerstown is not known; but we do know that Father Brute made great efforts to offer Mass wherever he found Catholics. All burials were in St. Joseph's parish cemetery. Father Brute writes about crossing into Pennsylvania to take care of several Negro families. Maryland was a slave state and Pennsylvania a free state for Negroes at the time. The people from Millerstown went to St. Joseph's Church for Mass on Sundays. They also went to the "church on the mountain." The date 1823 is used to show the establishment of Millerstown as a mission from Emmitsburg. Perhaps Mass was offered in one of the private homes of Millerstown at this time. What an honor for the family, if this could be shown. Some burials were made in the College cemetery at this time also. One family Bible shows that all the children were baptized at St. Joseph's, until the year 1853. Father Mariano Maller, C.M. was then the pastor of St. Joseph's. The parish history from 1823 until 1853 is therefore the same as that of Emmitsburg. In three letters dated June, July and August of 1852, Bishop John N. Neumann of Philadelphia, wrote to Father Maller concerning preparations for the building of a church in Millerstown. Bishop Neumann had been in Gettysburg on June 20, 1852 for the cornerstone laying ceremony of the new church. It was in 1852 that Father Crane, a priest at Mt. St. Mary's College, went to Fairfield to visit some of the Catholics there. He tells in his diary of visiting Iron Springs and of the Catholic families he found there and around there. He tells of the donations he received for beginning a church in Fairfield. In fact, he went to Baltimore to collect most of the money he needed. He tells of the day by day progress of the construction of the church, and especially describes the corner stone laying. In this ceremony he named the church: "Our Lady of the Snows." In the cornerstone he placed a document to this effect. When the church was up to the roof line, Father Crane died; and another priest took over the completion of the church. This priest too was from Mt. St. Mary's College. It is interesting to note the name of the church, given by it's first pastor. A ledger in the parish files dated 1909, gives the name as "St. Mary's of the Snows." Apparently the popular name was "St. Mary's", even from the earliest days.

Bishop Neumann conferred the Sacrament of Confirmation in St. Mary's, Fairfield, sometime after his correspondence with Father Maller and the completion of the church. It was established that Fairfield was in his diocese in those letters. He then took possession of the parish and gave it as a mission church to Gettysburg. Bishop Neumann confirmed in Gettysburg on July 31, 1853. Possibly, on this date he visited Fairfield also. It seems definite that Bishop Neumann administered confirmation in Fairfield.

Interior of Original Church

The names of the priests baptizing at St. Mary's, Fairfield were: Father Wiliges (possibly this is Father Villiger, S.J., in 1855, Father Braton in 1856, Father Shorb in 1859, Father Miller in 1860, Father MaGinnis in 1862, and Father Boll in 1866. Sometime between 1853 and 1855, St. Mary's became a mission of Gettysburg. The pastors of Gettysburg became pastors of Fairfield. The first burial in the parish cemetery at St. Mary's, was Anthony Peters in 1854. The parish cemetery was located directly behind the church. There is nother marker of one "Henry, son of D. S. and M. E. Fancyfrock, died January 3, 1829". Possibly, this body was transferred to the new cemetery in 1854. It is the only grave with any earlier date. Early names on the tombstones include: Fineyrock, Finrock, Bigham, Peters, Sanders, Lowe, Reese, McSherry, Topper, Bowling, Cool, Dick, Hare, McIntire, Dause, Bushman, Cornwell, Riley, Gallagher, McCleaf, McDannel, Strausbaugh, Benchof, Shriner, Shryock, Kebil, Reed, Pecher, Weaver, Rentzle, Izer, Brenizer, Wills, Hoffman, Taylor, Eck, Dearl, Allison and Allamong.

There was some confusion in the history of St. Mary's, due to an undocumented, one-page history written by Father McDermott in 1905. His written statement says that "Fr. Deneckere from Gettysburg, built the church in 1854 and named it the Church of the Immaculate Conception." This story he placed on file at the chancery office, and thus the name of the parish has remained to this date.

After the Battle of Gettysburg on July 3, 1863, the Army of the Potomac, under General Robert E. Lee, passed through Fairfield. The church had no resident pastor at that time, and so the church building was not used as a shelter for the wounded soldiers.

Father Joseph A. Boll took care of Fairfield from 1864 until 1893. This was a term of 29 years, and naturally, Father Boll is one of the well-remembered names for the people of Fairfield. Father Boll must have had a great affection for the people of his mission church, because even in ill health and only several months before his death, he still came to Fairfield to offer Mass and baptize. Mass was offered on the fourth Sunday of every month in Fairfield during the entire time it was a mission of Gettysburg.

During the pastorate of Father Boll, Harrisburg became a diocese on March 3, 1868. There were 10 dioceses established at that same date. The Most Reverend Jeremiah F. Shanahan became the first Bishop of Harrisburg.

Original Church

The name of Father Henry Relt appears in the baptismal records in 1881, and the name of Father Joseph Smith in the year 1893. Father Boll died on July 26, 1893; and shortly afterwards, St. Mary's parish was transferred as a mission of St. Andrew's, Waynesboro. The last recorded baptism from Gettysburg was August 2, 1893.

Father James Barr was pastor of Waynesboro at the time. There is record of his baptizing in Fairfield and in some family Bibles. All parish records were kept in Waynesboro from 1894 until 1898. Father Barr was pastor from August 1893 until June 1894. Father Bernard Campbell was pastor from 1894 until 1895. Father Jeremiah Looney was pastor from 1895 until 1898. Father

Eugene Halftermeyer became pastor from 1898 until 1902. During this time separate parish records were again kept for Fairfield, and he came to offer Mass on the second and fourth Sunday of every month. Father Halftermeyer was a Frenchman, and is well-remembered, especially for attending the sick during the typhoid epidemic.

Father James McDermott became pastor from 1902 until 1910. The church at Fairfield was in need of repairs by this time, and Father McDermott added a new front, a new tower and sacristy in 1904. Electric lights were installed at this time. The total cost for this work was $2,200. There were 35 families and 215 souls in the parish. Father McDermott began the annual picnics and they were held once a year at the farm of John A. Cool. There would be a big meal at noon, games and dancing.

Father Thomas Johnson came to Fairfield from June 1908 until December 1908. He came twice a month from Conewago (Edgegrove). Father Johnson organized the sodality for the unmarried men and women. It was chartered on December 8, 1908, and a banquet was held at the Odd Fellows Hall in Fairfield. Father Johnson also organized the choir and Mrs. Margaret Allison was the organist. There were about 30 members in the choir. Father Johnson usually stayed in Fairfield all day and had evening services at 7:00 p. m. The building next to Newman's old market was purchased for a rectory during his time. The deed was titled "Rectory Conewago" when it was eventually sold to Archibald Marshall. Father Johnston is still remembered in Fairfield for his work with the young people. In his short administration he established a unity which remains to the present day.

Father Samuel Milner came to Fairfield from January 1909 until February 1910. He lived at the newly-purchased rectory and his mother was the housekeeper. Father Milner began the weekly Masses Sunday at St. Mary's Church. Mass was offered once on Sunday, due to the fact that the church was now enlarged.

The first permanent pastor appointed by the bishop was Father John O'Donnell. He was pastor from February 1910 until April 1910. During his pastorate the parish had its first Lenten and Holy Week services by a priest. Previous to this Mr. George Kebil would have Friday Stations of the Cross during Lent at 7:00 p. m. Mrs. Helen Pecher played the organ for these services. Father William Howard became pastor from April 1910 until July 1910. Father John Connaghan became pastor from August 1910 until August 1912. Father Arthur Brandt was appointed pastor from September 1912 until March 1915. Father Brandt moved to the hotel to live. He called a meeting of the church committee and had himself elected chairman, with Jacob Harry Pecher as secretary. George Kebil moved to sell the rectory. The buildnig was sold to Archbald Marshall, Fairfield, for $700. Mr. Zachariah Sanders donated some land for a cemetery and the bodies from the old cemetery were dug up and transferred to the present location. All the men of the parish were called upon to help dig up the bodies and transfer them in wagons to the new site. After the ground was ready, a new rectory was added to the rear of the church in 1913. Hot air heat was put in the church at this time and the old stove was removed from the middle of the church. The annual summer picnics were transferred to the lawn beside the new cemetery. Father Brandt began having two Masses on Sunday.

Father Henry B. Strickland became pastor from March 1915 until December 1915. Father Herman B. Gies became pastor from December 1915 until September 1917. Father Gies and William Reed painted the outside of the church. Father Matthew Scanlon was pastor from September 1917 until April 1922. Father Scanlon was also given charge of St. Rita's on June 17, 1920.

Father Patrick Sullivan became pastor from April 1922 until October 1924. He moved to Blue Ridge Summit after buying a property there in 1923. He asked for an assistant and Father Paul Weaver then came on weekends to hear confessions and have Mass at St. Mary's. Father Sullivan took care of St. Rita's and Buena Vista. Father Sullivan wanted to buy a lot in Fairfield for a new church, but he did not have enough time to accomplish this.

Father Denis Reardon was appointed pastor of St. Mary's from October 1924 until September 1925. The old altar in the church was replaced by one donated from St. Francis Church, Gettysburg. This altar was then placed in the sacristy where it remained until 1965. The old altar was "built by Sebastian Brant 1852", a man from Emmitsburg. He signed his name to the altar. A trade of land for the cemetery was begun at this time in order to extend the frontage.

Father John Connaghan became pastor again from October 1925 until June 1926.

Father Richard McLaughlin was pastor from June 1926 until December 1927. Father McLaughlin had been gassed blind for 14 days during the World War. Father Albert Hoenniger became pastor from January 1927 until September 1927. He was replaced for two weeks by Father Joseph Schmidt. Then Father Charles Park was pastor from September 1927 until December 1927. Father Park was the bishop's lawyer.

Father James McGrath was pastor from December 1927 until July 1933. Father McGrath had the interior of the church frescoed and put in the stained glass windows. He was pastor during the depression of 1929. Father Robert Hartnett was pastor from May 1933 until May 1934. Father Hartnett began the weekly Mass at the C.C.C. Camp at Pine Grove Furnace. Mass at the parish church was offered at 8:00 a. m. and on the fourth Sunday at 10:00 a. m. During Father Gieringer's time the Camp was closed and Mass remained at 8:00 every Sunday until Father McCullough added another Mass at 9:00 a. m.

Father Charles Allen became pastor from May 1934 until April 1936. Father Allen put in the cement walks around the church and helped organize the community baseball and basketball teams.

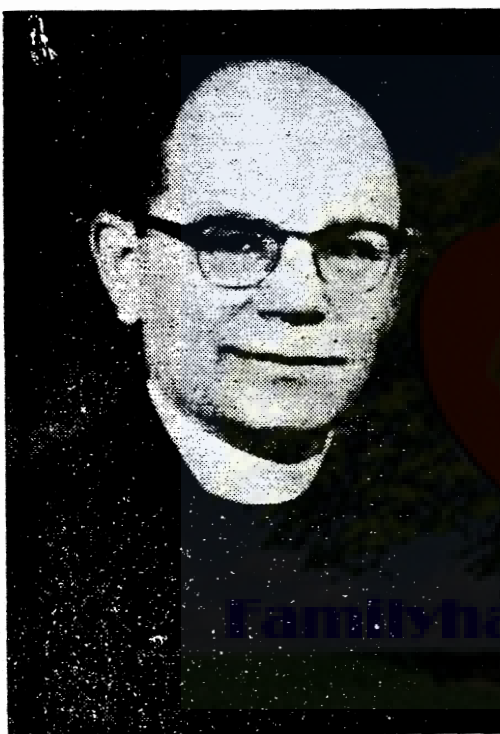

Father Paul Gieringer became pastor from April 1936 until August 1939. Father Gieringer did much research on the history of the parish. He installed gas heat in the church and rectory and did much work in the cemetery. The old fence was removed and a road built; the cemetery was graded and the fallen stones reset. Father Gieringer reactivated the Holy Name Society and did some work in the sacristy, rectory and church. The tower of the church was rebuilt and oak doors installed. He also did a lot of work at the picnic grove, enlarging the sheds and filling in the ground.

Father John Onofrey became pastor in August 1939 until June 1943. The retreat movement began during his pastorate, and a movie was shown throughout the diocese. Lawyer Mason Welsh gave a talk on the legal aspects of the trial of Christ during one of the Lenten evenings. The people of the community attended this event. Father Onofrey built a floor for dancing at the picnic grove. He is remembered for visiting the people and his kindness to those whose sons were in World War II.

Father Joseph Gotwalt became pastor from June 1943 until July 1946. It is interesting to note that the parish picnic was cancelled in 1943, due to the gasoline shortage and ban on pleasure driving. Father Gotwalt was appointed administrator of St. Rita's Church in 1945. The Jesuits assisted him in the summer for Masses.

Father Cletus Hauck became pastor from July 1946 until April 1948. He began the transportation of school children to Emmitsburg. A school bus was purchased with a gift of $1,000 from the bishop and cashing in some parish bonds. The children went to Mother Seton Grade School and St. Joseph's High School. The public high school in Fairfield closed in June of 1946 and so there was a good number of children who rode the bus.

Father Topper

Father McAnulty

Father Vincent Topper was pastor from April 1943 until September 1950. Two of the three picnics were rained out. Father Topper worked very hard to build up a parish fund for renovating the church. He extended the school bus service to take the children from Blue Ridge Summit to St. Andrew's, Waynesboro, for school. Father Topper drew up a chart of the cemetery and had the various grave boundaries marked off. This chart has been invaluable in settling burial disputes.

Father Francis McCullough was appointed pastor from September 1950 until April 1954. Father added a second Mass in both parishes on Sundays. The priests from Mt. St. Mary's College began to help with the parish work. Father Carl Fives and Father Robert Kline came on Sundays to offer Mass. The children of St. Mary's were transferred to St. Francis, Gettysburg and Delone, when the parochial schools at Emmitsburg became overcrowded. Father also assumed the duties at Fort Ritchie. The renovation of the church was completed in April of 1954 at a cost of over $30,000. A new altar was installed, a new heating system, new pews, new roof, a new carpet and a completely new decoration of the interior. The exterior of the church was painted white. The work took nine months.

Monsignor Gieringer

Father John McAnulty became pastor in April 1954 until June 1964. Faced with a large debt, Father McAnulty gradually whittled it down. He redecorated the interior of the rectory and had the white paint removed from the exterior of the church. The soft bricks of the original church were too porous and did not retain the paint. Father McAnulty planned and began construction of the beautiful new St. Rita's Church in Blue Ridge Summit. Fort Ritchie began to grow and he had many duties with the soldiers. He was called upon frequently to offer Sunday

Mass at Camp David, Md. for the late John F. Kennedy, President of the United States.

Father Daniel Mahoney is the present pastor as of June of 1964.

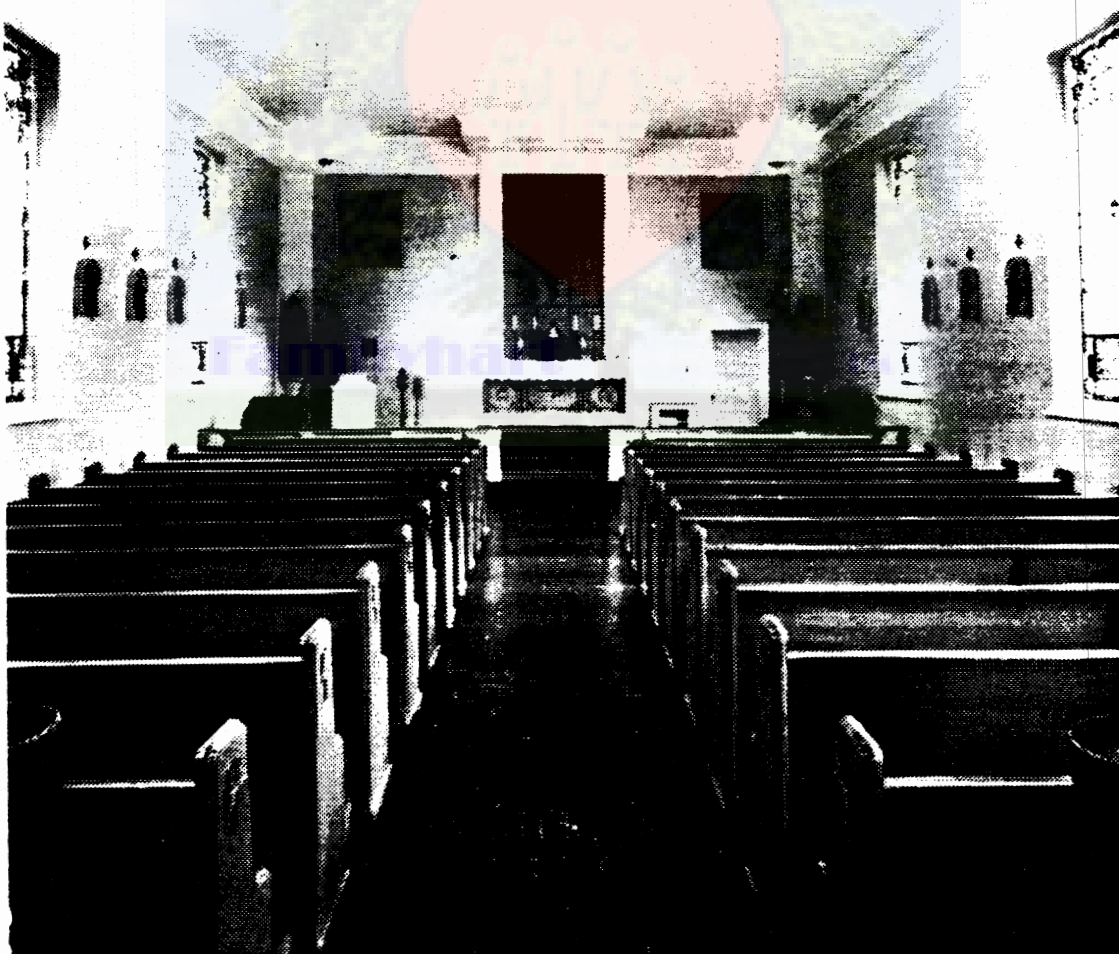

This history was five months in the writing. In fact, it was rewritten three times in its entire form. There were many misleading statements with regard to the history of St. Mary's; but thanks to the efforts of Monsignor Paul Gieringer and Father Vincent Topper, a rather well-documented history is now presented. The diary of the first pastor, Father Crane, is missing from the parish files. Fortunately, Monsignor Gieringer studied it and related it in detail to the present pastor. All known documents substantiate the facts of this diary. More knowledge will be added to this history in the future; but at least, this is a beginning.

Knights of the Altar

The parish is in good shape physically and spiritually, due to the efforts of the pastors of the past. On visiting the parishioners, they recount many stories of the kindness of the various pastors. There is no list of vocations to the priesthood or religious life. This will come in time. The talent is here, and it will remain with the parents to encourage their sons and daughters to follow after Our Lord and His representatives. There is a great spirit of loyalty and generosity. The church seats 120 persons. There are three Masses on Sunday, at 7:00, 9:15 and 11:00 a. m. At present, there are options on three properties for a new location of the church. Sunday school is taught by the Sisters of Charity for 73 pupils. There are 39 pupils at St. Francis, 9 at Delone and 13 at Mother Seton. The church and rectory have been repainted on the inside and a new carpet installed in the sanctuary. The sacristy was done over in August of 1964 and the picnic shed painted in 1965. There are 419 parishioners. Melvin Hewitt was hired full time to take care of St. Mary's, St. Rita's and the cemetery. He also drives the school bus as of November 1965. Miss Bessie Topper is the housekeeper, a position she has retained since 1955. Mrs. Mary Knott was the organist. Miss Ethel Grace Allison is now the organist. Mrs. Ruth Rombin is the choir director. Mr. Joseph McIntire and Mr. Charles Weishaar are the parish auditors. They have performed this duty for many years.

Interior of Present Church

The present pastor drove the school bus for 10 weeks, took care of Fort Ritchie and finished the new St. Rita's Church. As of July 1965, Father Charles Bowers has been chaplain at Fort Ritchie. He has been a great help in giving spiritual care to the parishioners of St. Rita's and Fort Ritchie.

The unsung hero of the past 10 years has been Father Thomas Keeney. Father Keeney is a professor at Mt. St. Mary's College. Taking time from his studies and teaching duties, he has always been available for Sunday Mass, confessions and the many other spiritual duties of parish life. He is the unofficial assistant pastor of the three parishes. Due to the complications of trying to run three parishes simultaneously, the help of these wonderful priests has proven invaluable.

In conclusion, it should be stated that this book began to commemorate the belated 100th anniversary of the parish. As dates and facts materialized this event was changed to the 110th anniversary of the church. Finally, the book simply commemorates the 143rd anniversary as a mission parish, the 114th anniversary of a parish with a pastor, and the 113th anniversary of the church. Since all the work was done, the book was published. Perhaps it will prove to be a good thing.

A special thank-you must be given to all who helped in any way with the preparation of this book. The patrons are to be commended. May God reward your generosity toward His Church.
